THE 1947 COMMONER

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN UNIVERSITY

Dayton, Tennessee

JUNIOR CLASS

WE DEDICATE . . .

Because your sincerity is evident in all that you do . . .

Your spiritual life has been inspiring . . .

Your teaching and counsel have motivated true growth . . .

Your friendship has been a joy and blessing . . .

We, the class of 1948, affectionately dedicate to you,

Professor John Robert Shirley, this volume of the Commoner.

BRYAN IS . . .

Bryan is a lot of little things ; that is, they seem little in themselves, yet they form a composite and clear picture of what Bryan really means to each one of us.

BRYAN IS . . .

. . . the swell of earnest voices in chapel singing unto the Lord and from the heart. . . .

. . . a strenuous hike led by Dean Ryther to the summit of Buzzard's Point, where before your eyes variegated squares of countryside spread hazily into the distant, majestic Smokies. . . .

. . . a tedious searching of the library for facts for that archaeology paper. . . .

. . . the warm smile of a friend who has grown dear to you through the years. . . .

. . . the music, laughter, and soft candlelight of the Christmas Banquet. . . .

. . . the release from studies that campus clean-up brings, along with outdoor exercise and fun. . . .

. . . a stroll to the "gate" on a spring evening to watch the sun set behind Lone Mountain. . . .

. . . the daily blessing of opening class with prayer, and studying and testing the opinions and theories of men by true science, then judging all in the light of God's Word. . . .

. . . the blessing that a regular devotional time in the quiet of the prayer room brings. . . .

. . . a renewed determination, as the years go on, to use what God has given in the way He designates ; to be nearer to Him and walk worthy of our calling. . . .

This—and much more—is BRYAN.

“Unto Him”

S E N I O R S

II Cor. 5:14, 15. “For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.”

ANNIE AUSTRALIA FIREBAUGH
 Wooster, Ohio

1 John 4:10

Attended Cleveland Bible College 1, 2, 3; Child Evangelism 4; Archery Club, Secretary and Treasurer 4; Forensic 4; Scarlet.

Annie graduated from Cleveland Bible College before coming to Bryan. Her sweet Christian spirit is seen in a radiant smile. Even though she has spent only one year at Bryan, she has made her way into everyone’s heart because of her sincere interest in others.

ANGIE MAY GARBER

Leon, Iowa

John 17:24

Student Council 1, 3; Lay Ambassadors 1, 2, 3, 4, President 3, 4; Forensic Union 1; Class Treasurer 2; Choir 3; Spanish Club 1; Scarlet.

Angie says that her hobby is raising flowers; but, she also has a real talent for expressing herself in poetry. And when there's a hike on, you know that Angie will be up with the best of them. Her quiet Christian life has been a source of blessing to all who know her.

HAZEL NELL GEIGER

Green Cove Springs, Florida

Psalms 103:12

Child Evangelism 1, 2, 3, 4; Forensic Union 1, 2, 3; Lay Ambassadors 3, 4; Choir 3; Gospel Singers 2, 3; Journalism Club 2; Commoner Staff 3; Spanish Club 1; Gold.

Hazel Nell is a cheerful young lady who can be heard singing or whistling almost any time. She traveled one summer with the Girls' Quartette as second alto. She is especially talented in presenting the Gospel to children, and as Hazel Nell goes into full-time Christian service, her aim is "to give spiritual blessings to those who lack material blessings."

JEAN HAUGHT GULLEY

Elkwood, Virginia

Romans 8:31

Child Evangelism Fellowship 1, 2, 3, 4, Program Chairman 3, Secretary 4; Spanish Club 1; Dormitory Committee 3; Gold.

"I Dream of Jeanie with the Dark Brown Hair" might well be sung of Miss Jean Gulley, and we must not forget to add that she has sweetly serious dark-brown eyes. "Jeanie" can be seen at almost any time, anywhere, calmly knitting. She looks forward to glorifying the Lord as a school teacher.

JEANETTE LAVERNE HOWLAND
New London, Ohio

John 14:27

Forensic Union 1, 2, 3; Foreign Missions Fellowship 2, 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 4; Child Evangelism Fellowship 1, 2, 3; Hebrew Prayer Fellowship 2, President; Journalism Club 1, 2; Lay Ambassadors 1; Class Secretary 3, 4; Commoner Staff 3; Gospel Singers 2, 3, 4; Choir 3, 4; Scarlet.

LaVerne has managed to crowd a lot of activities into her four years at school. She has been kept particularly busy this last year as dining hall hostess, and a well-run dining hall has been the result of her efficient planning. We also have enjoyed LaVerne's sweet soprano voice, which she has used to sing His praises.

LUCILLE ELAINE KENNARD
St. Augustine, Florida

Isaiah 26:3

Forensic Union 1, 2, 3, Corresponding Secretary 2; Foreign Missions Fellowship 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Editor, Commoner Staff 3; Newsette Staff Campus Reporter 2, 3; Student Council Vice-President 4; Who's Who 3, 4; Gold.

Elaine, sometimes known as G. G. (Good Girl), is a clear, quick, deep thinker who is always ready for a laugh. One with outstanding leadership ability, she might well be tagged a capable organizer. Elaine's hobby is Child Evangelism, but upon completion of her training she plans to be a medical missionary.

RUTH ELEANOR KUHN
Dayton, Ohio

Romans 8:38, 39

Foreign Missions Fellowship 1, 2, 3, 4; Child Evangelism Fellowship 1, 2, 3, 4, Program Chairman 2; Class Treasurer 3; Camera Club 4; Scarlet.

"Ruthie" is well-known for her ready smile and cheery "hello." Her sincere love for the Lord and her kindness to others have established her worth as a friend. The whole-hearted enthusiasm Ruthie has had for Child Evangelism will undoubtedly be carried over into future usefulness as she attempts to live "unto Him."

MARY ESTHER LISEC

Atlanta, Georgia

Galatians 2:20

Bob Jones College 1, 2; Forensic Union 3; Camera Club 3, 4, President 3, 4; Archery Club 3; Girls' Sports Captain for Scarlets 3, 4; Class Vice-President 4; Commoner Staff 3; Scarlet.

Even though Mary has been with us only two years, she has become a well-liked member of the Bryan family. Included in our fond memories of Bryan will be her entertaining impersonations. Miracle Book Club has been an outlet for Mary's earnest desire to be a soul-winner and a conversationalist for Christ, and we know that her winsome personality will be a real asset in the fulfillment of this desire.

KENNETH RALPH MARKEN

Seville, Ohio

Psalms 37:4

University of Richmond 2; University of Virginia 3; Class Treasurer 4; Pastors' Fellowship 4; President of Golds 4; Camera Club 4; Gold.

A call to the armed forces interrupted "Kenny's" education at Bryan, but he was able to take work at the University of Richmond and the University of Virginia, and to come to Bryan this year as a senior. Quiet and sincere, he is ever-willing and able to take responsibility. Kenny is an enthusiastic camera fan who likes the developing part of the job, too.

FLORENCE CAROLINA MONCK

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Philippians 1:20

Student Instructor in Spanish 3, 4; Foreign Missions Fellowship 1, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 1, 3, 4; Forensic Union 1, 2, 3; Child Evangelism 1, 2; Assistant Editor of Newslette 2; Student Council Secretary 2; Who's Who 4; Scarlet.

In her four years at Bryan, "Flossie" has proved herself an able teacher as well as student, by taking advantage of previous training in Spanish and becoming the student instructor in that language during her junior and senior years. Aside from this, she will long be remembered for her mythical wooden leg and her dry sense of humor. Her testimony is: "The one outstanding characteristic of my Christian experience has been the never-failing faithfulness of the Lord Jesus Christ."

EARLE EDWIN PEER
East Cleveland, Ohio

Philippians 4:19

Student Council 2; Pastors' Fellowship 1, 2, 4, Secretary 1, 2; Class Vice-President 1; Who's Who 4; Christian Service Association, Chairman 1; Gold.

Earle has been the faithful pastor at Hairpin Curve Chapel ever since he came to Bryan. Because of his zeal to be in the service of the Lord, he has completed his course at Bryan in three years. Earle is a considerate, friendly individual who is sure to have friends wherever he goes.

ADAM HENRY RAGER
Conemaugh, Pennsylvania

Romans 1:16

Pastors' Fellowship 1, 2, 4, Vice-President 1, 2; Student Council 1, 4; Scarlet.

In whatever he undertakes, Adam is conscientious, but you cannot miss his keen sense of humor. He finished his studies at Bryan in three years. Adam's experiences at Summer City Chapel as a student pastor will no doubt be profitable to him as he goes into the ministry of the Gospel.

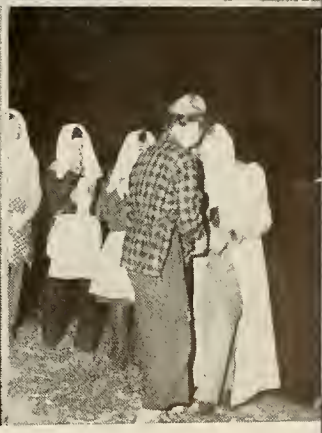

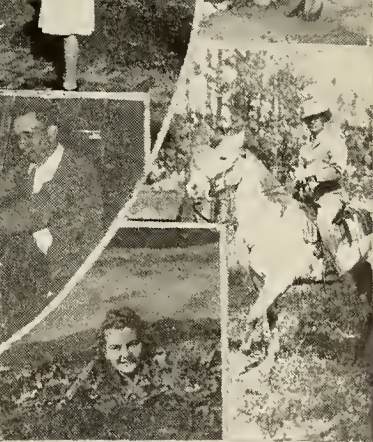

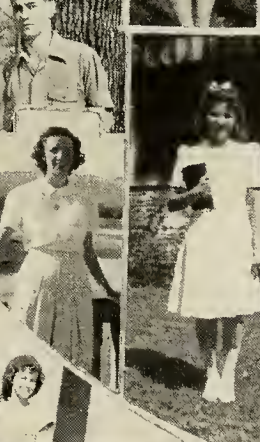

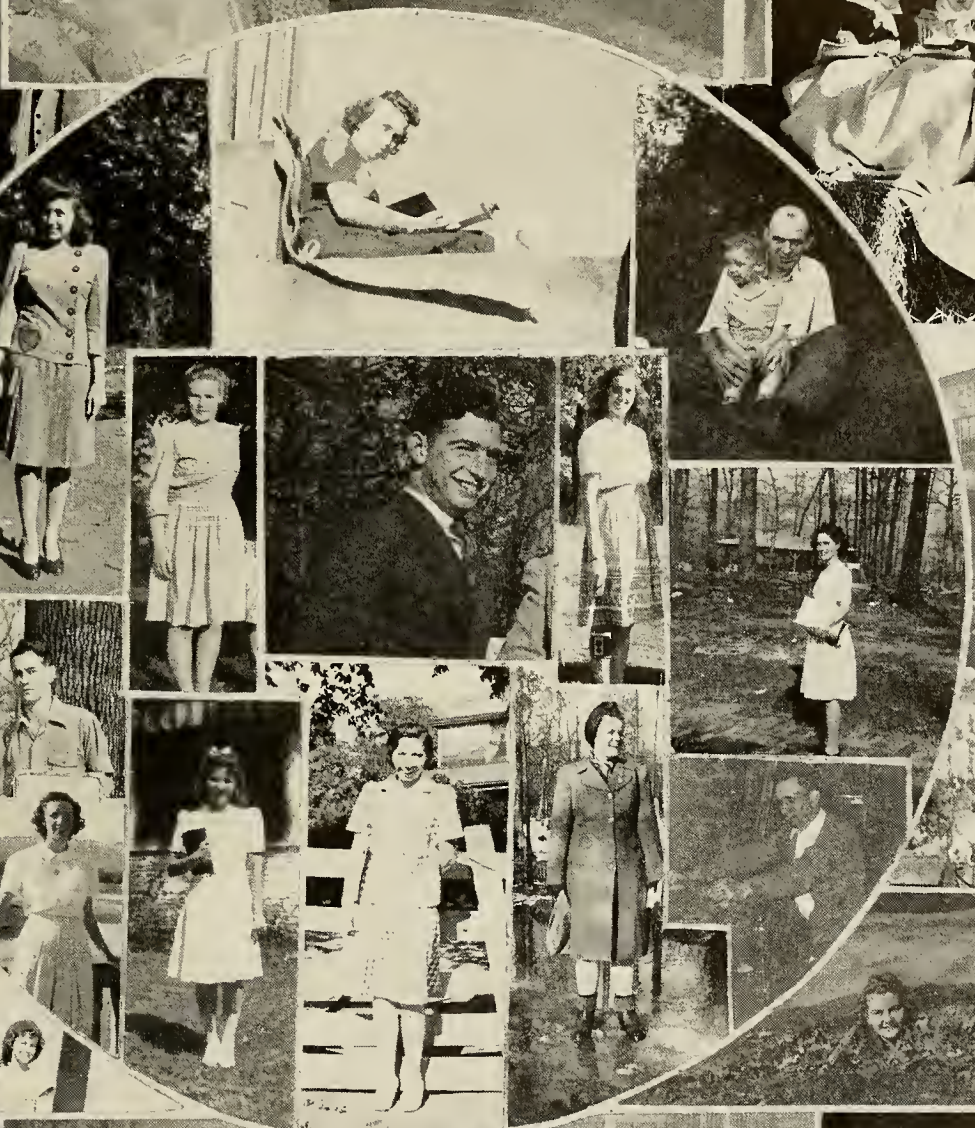

BRUCE IRVING ROSENAU
Fort Sibut, French Equatorial Africa

Romans 8:28

Foreign Missions Fellowship 1, 2, 3, 4, President 2, 3, 4; Class President 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council President 3; Business Manager, Commoner Staff 3; Sports Captain for Golds 2, 3; Gold.

Bruce is well-liked, well-known, and a hard worker. Thoughtful and helpful are two words describing him perfectly. His natural expression is that of a serious thinker, and he handles well those things that are entrusted to him. In his four years at Bryan, Bruce's interest in foreign missions has never diminished, and upon completion of further training, he plans to take the Gospel to the "uttermost parts of the earth."

SCARLETS

Scarlet is a rousing color—and rousing is just the word for the Scarlet cheering section at basketball games. Known for their pep and vitality, the Scarlets have a way of getting things done. Undaunted by last year's defeat, they are pressing on with real determination toward the coveted trophy.

GOLDS

The Golds are traditional rivals of the Scarlets in forensics and sports. As gold is the symbol of value, so the Golds have shown their value by five victories in the last six years. Scarlets and Golds are friendly opponents, chosen by an equal division of the student body, yet maintaining a unity that is far greater than any division—that of unity in Christ.

GOLDS

First row—D. Oakley, E. L. Hall (Girls' Sports Captain, Cheerleader), K. Marken (President), E. Kennard (Forensic Captain, Cheerleader), E. Hoyt (Assistant Forensic Captain). Second row—H. ARCHERY CLUB

As an organization with a definite aim, the Archery Club, properly called the "Toxiphilites" is always seeking to improve theirs. It offers ample opportunity for sports-minded young ladies to get fresh air, sunshine, and strong arms.

LAY AMBASSADORS

A group of consecrated Christians, the Lay Ambassadors seek to serve Christ even though they have not felt called to any particular type of full-time Christian service. "Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ . . ."

STUDENT PASTORS' FELLOWSHIP

The Student Pastors' Fellowship was established in memory of Bryan's first president, George E. Guille. At the meetings study is made of sermon construction, pastoral problems, and soul winning. Through this fellowship it is hoped that prospective pastors might be better prepared to meet the task ahead.

FOREIGN MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP

One of the national organizations on the campus, the Foreign Missions Fellowship, provides a real source of inspiration and encouragement. Students who look forward to serving on the foreign field and those who are genuinely interested in the work have the need of missions brought before them at each meeting. The programs presented this year have been skits which show the way to approach people of various religions with the Gospel. Each member of Foreign Missions Fellowship is encouraged to fulfill Christ's command—"Go Ye and Give Ye and Pray Ye."

"Our missionary call was a steadily growing realization of our responsibility to go where there was the greatest need for the Gospel. Bryan played a great part in our call to the field.

"Our field is about the size of the state of Indiana. We are just reaching about twenty towns and there are some one hundred towns not having any Gospel testimony. The need is therefore great and the laborers are few."

Gwen: There are not enough workers for all that needs to be done. Someone is needed for dispensary and others for teaching both in elementary and training schools. At present there is but one teacher for the entire school.

Albert: I have recently been busy copying notes to use in language study and am looking forward to the day when I can proclaim the Gospel to these people in their own tongue. Pray for me as I study that the Lord will give to me the understanding that I need for this very difficult language.

"Our call is based on our Lord's command to 'GO'. The first definite leading to the foreign field was at Bryan through the ministry of W. C. Townsend. More workers are needed for the expansion of our work into other countries. The needs for our own work are additional scripture portions in Zoque and help in teaching people to read them."

"In a Christian college and Bible school I was not only preparing in a secular way for my future work, but those years were also a time of heart-searching, when God revealed a nature still rebellious and unwilling to conform to His will. . . . The Lord showed me the utter futility of doing anything in this world apart from His plan for my life. Deep, abiding peace is mine as I go to China to serve Him by telling the gospel to those for whom He died and for whom you are praying."

"In our trip from the Cape to the field we had the opportunity to see the people and the conditions of a great part of Africa. More couples, doctors, nurses, teachers qualified in French, and supplies for the print shop are needed on the field. On a visitation trip to an outstation for a baptismal service it was remarkable to hear the testimonies of the young Christians telling what the Lord had done for them. It was an encouragement to see the work that is being carried on by the native workers."

"During our first term of service we were the only missionaries in a county of one million Chinese. Adjoining us to the south were two other counties with a combined population of over half a million, in which there are no resident Protestant missionaries. To meet the spiritual need of these million and a half souls there was one organized church and four other meeting places. China as a whole remains the largest unreached nation on the face of the earth."

"I was called upon to give my first message in the Sango language after having studied it for only five months. God enabled me to do this task and He used the Word to save three souls that day.

"At the age of seventeen, through the message of a missionary from French Equatorial Africa, God called me to serve Him there. Later the need of the Tchad (Northern) Province of French Equatorial Africa was impressed upon me so that I now feel it is God's place for me."

STUDENT COUNCIL

“ . . . that in all things he might have the pre-eminence” is the motto of the Student Council.

Representing each of the four classes, the eight members of the council may be found on Monday afternoon actively discussing a student problem or suggestion for some campus improvement. The problems and suggestions are discussed informally, and any decision reached must first be presented to the Committee of Deans before action can be taken.

“So you want more candlelight dinners . . . you want that chapel speaker back . . . you think we need more informal parties . . .

Take it to the Student Council.”

GIRLS' DORMITORY

A peaceful, quiet, and calm spirit pervades the girls' dormitory—at night when all are asleep. During the daytime, quite the opposite is true, for each hour is taken up with classes, study, work, and play. Saturday night is a time of fun and relaxation when the week is over. A spiritually uplifting prayer meeting on Sunday night begins a new week. Dean Rader, guide and counselor, helps to maintain a real spirit of unity among the girls.

MEN'S DORM.

A harsh jangling penetrates to the darkest corner of the boys' dormitory at 6:00 a.m., and another day has begun for the "inmates" of the Octagon. Although most of the day's activities—meals, classes, and meetings—do not take place in the Octagon, there are times of fellowship there which will never be forgotten. A prayer meeting held each Monday night proves to be a real source of blessing. Home is a place to receive rest and fellowship, and to forty-seven fellows the Octagon is home.

TRAILWOOD

"Trailwood", the more aesthetic name for Vets-Ville, is the title given the trailer village just south of the administration building where Bryan's married students reside. Through government contract, thirteen Federal Public Housing Authority trailers were set up for the use of ex-G. I.'s; privately owned units bring the total to seventeen. Although the trailers are spread over a wide portion of Bryan Hill, there is a unity of spirit and a wholesome attitude of cooperation among the trailerites.

MUSIC

CHOIR

Under the capable direction of Professor Stock, the University choir has afforded real enjoyment to both students and local friends this year. Apart from recitals, the choir furnished music for the Bible Conference and chapel programs, and also presented Christmas and Easter cantatas. An outlet is here provided for those with vocal ability to use that talent for the Lord.

FORENSIC UNION

Forensic Union is an organization open to all students and staff members. It was organized as a secular club for the purpose of giving opportunity for training in speaking before the public, for experience in debate, and for study of parliamentary procedure. Forensic also furnishes a channel by which special talents of various members may be used and developed, and provides entertainment to those who attend.

CAMERA CLUB

The University Camera Club is a valuable asset in that it offers immediate and practical training in the fundamentals of photography. Those looking forward to the mission field particularly value this training. Each member has access to the dark room, where he can learn to develop his own pictures.
